

Jacqueline Rabe Thomas, Education and Housing Reporter, CT Mirror

Jacqueline Rabe Thomas is the CT Mirror's Education and Housing Reporter and an original member of the CT Mirror staff. She has won first-place awards for investigative reporting from state, New England, and national organizations. Before joining CT Mirror in late 2009, Jacqueline was a reporter, online editor and website developer for the Washington Post Co.'s Maryland newspaper chains. She has also worked for Congressional Quarterly and the Toledo Free Press. Jacqueline received an undergraduate degree in journalism from Bowling Green State University and a master's in public policy from Trinity College in Hartford.

In 2019, Jacqueline won first place in the New England Newspaper & Press Association's investigative/enterprise reporting category for her outstanding yearlong series, "Separated By Design."